

Democracy:

School Council are democratically elected by pupils each year.
We collaborate, discussing what we want to find out and help plan topics.
Each class collectively agrees on promises for their class charter.
Pupil and Parent questionnaires are conducted every year.
Information is shared through the newsletter, Twitter, school website, letters etc.

Article 12: You have the right to your opinion.

Individual Liberty

We celebrate achievements in Collective Worship, in class and using different forms of media.
Our school has reward systems such as house points, Pupil of the Week, Head Teacher award stickers.
Extra-Curricular achievements are celebrated.
We have lots of clubs and activities available at school.

Article 8: You have the right to an identity

British Values at Saint Norbert's Catholic Primary School

Mutual Respect

We are a Rights Respecting School that is proud to have an understanding of how we can respect each other and uphold the rights of others at school and in our world.
We contribute positively to the lives of others through community and charity work.
We are kind and welcoming, showing respect to those we meet both inside and outside of school.

Article 2: All children have rights, no matter who they are.

Rule of Law:

Behaviour Charts and Policy are in place.
Learning right from wrong is important and we understand our actions have consequences.
Respect the law of the country.
We have visitors such as Police officers.
We have JPSOs, Road Safety Officers, Digital Leaders and School Council.
Collective worships share important messages with us and we have visitors in to speak.
The Bikeability course teaches rules of the road.

Article 4: The government has a responsibility to make sure your rights are protected.

Tolerance of other faiths and beliefs

The curriculum actively supports citizenship and stewardship.
We have p4c and Global Citizenship sessions
Our displays celebrate diversity of languages spoken.
We take part in BLP days about other cultures
'Other Faith' weeks are celebrated and have visitors from other faiths to talk and share with us.

Article 30: You have the right to practice your own culture, language and religion.

At our school, we think about how the values of our society are fundamental as we live in an increasingly growing diverse and vibrant society. We know that it is possible to live together peacefully, each of us a valuable part of our multicultural world. Through understanding the core British Values, we strive to be the best citizens we can be.