

Article 12: You have the right to give your opinion and for adults to listen and take it seriously.

We share
kindness to everyone and having fun in our lessons.

We value good friendship and kindness, as well as sharing ideas with one another.

We share the things we know and we help those who are hurt and give our joy with everyone who knows.

What do we value in school?

We do fun lessons and the staff always learn
us new things everyday we learn and take part.

We value the wellbeing of the school that being of children, adults and our earth We value all children's views and opinions and always listen to thoughts and ideas.

Article 12: You have the right to give your opinion and for adults to listen and take it seriously.