

Miss Whyles' Recommended Reads!

"There is no such thing as a child who hates to read; there are only children who have not found the right book."

Lent 2 2024

The following list includes only books that I have personally read and would fully recommend to my classes. They all fall into the 5-7 age range so would be perfect for KS1. I have hard copies of practically all of these books so if you would like to borrow one, ask and I will see what I can do! Happy reading...

(Even though I loved reading all of these books, the books highlighted in grey are HIGHLY recommended!)

Book Cover	Title	Author	A Brief Guide...
	A Walk in London	Salvatore Rubbino	A wide-eyed girl and her mother explore London's busy streets and towering views in this child-friendly tribute to an incomparable city. London – the perfect place for a girl and her mother to spend the day! Follow them as they board the classic red bus and begin a whirlwind tour of some of London's most iconic landmarks.
	Boogie Bear	David Walliams	Up at the North Pole, a big furry polar bear is swimming, fishing and eating. But when she nods off and finds herself far from home, she thinks things can't get any worse. But they can... Much worse!
	The Pelican who Couldn't	Neil Griffiths	A tale of two tall talking' pelicans who attempt to 'out-do' each other. After much thrashing and splashing and pinching and snapping, one 'over does' it, with feather flying consequences!
	The Cave	Rob Hodgson	There is a cave. A cave that is home to a creature. A creature that never leaves its cave... Because of a wolf. The wolf tries everything to get the creature to leave the cave, to no avail. But what will happen when he finally succeeds?
