

Year 5 Recommended Reads!

“There is no such thing as a child who hates to read; there are only children who have not found the right book.”

Book	Title	Author	A Brief Guide...
	THE EXPLORER	Katherine Rundell	The Explorer tells the tale of Fred, Con, Max and Lila, who find themselves lost in the Amazon rainforest, when their plane crashes. The story has many unexpected twists and turns and is great for inspiring discussion and writing.
	THE WILD WAY HOME	Sophie Kirtley	This story follows Charlie, who is scared by changes in his family so decides to run away. Charlie finds a boy in a river and is instantly transported to the stone age. The two boys support each other through their growing friendship, whilst they try to find their ways back to their families.
	EVEREST: THE REMARKABLE STORY OF EDMUND HILLARY AND TENZING NORGAY	Alexandra Stewart	Their names were Edmund Hillary and Tenzing Norgay and the roof of the world was Everest. This is the breathtaking story of how two very different yet equally determined men battled frost-biting temperatures, tumbling ice rocks, powerful winds and death-defying ridges to climb the world's highest mountain
	WHO LET THE WORDS OUT?	Joshua Seigal	Popular children's poet Joshua Seigal brings a brilliant new book of entertaining poems, offering a great selection of poems to make you laugh, make you think or just let you enjoy for the sheer delight of it. Using challenging vocabulary and a range of poetry styles, these short poems are perfect for children who like a giggle without having to look too hard to find one. Seigal writes about a range of relatable topics from school to friendships, about pets and even their fleas.

--	--	--	--