

Year 2: Coasts Knowledge Mat

Subject Specific Vocabulary		Features of the Seaside	Important Knowledge sea	Seas are smaller than oceans and are usually where the land and ocean meet.		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> I know the four countries and capital cities of the United Kingdom. <input type="checkbox"/> I know the surrounding seas of the United Kingdom. <input type="checkbox"/> I know different types of settlements found in the United Kingdom and I know what the seaside is. <input type="checkbox"/> I know the physical and human features of the seaside. <input type="checkbox"/> I know what life is like in a seaside town and I know the species of animals and plants that are found there. <input type="checkbox"/> I know what a coastline is and I know the features of a coastline. <input type="checkbox"/> I know that the Jurassic Coast is a famous coastline in the United Kingdom.
seaside	A place by the sea, especially a beach area or holiday resort.
beach	A beach is a landform found along the coast of an ocean, sea, or lake.
sand dunes	A hill or ridge of sand piled up by the wind is called a sand dune.
harbour	An area of the sea at the coast where boats can be left safely.	Types of Coastlines port	A town or city with a harbour where ships load or unload.
attractions	The human and physical features found in a particular place that often make people want to visit.
coast	The land along a sea.
Irish Sea	The body of water that separates Ireland and Great Britain.
English Channel	Part of the Atlantic Ocean that separates England and France.		